

QATARI DIAR successfully supports a conference by OIC in Doha

GCEO Al-Hadfa: “This conference is considered a leading powerhouse for investment and cross-country trade among the countries of the Muslim world”

Doha – December XX, 2011

QATARI DIAR Real Estate Investment Company, an international leader in sustainable development, supported the 2nd annual conference on “Business Owners Union and Business Youth Union” of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) countries as a diamond sponsor.

The conference was held under the patronage of HE Sheikh Hamad bin Jassim bin Jabor Al-Thani, Qatari Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs, in Doha from December 4-5.

Commenting on the sponsorship, Eng. Mohamed bin Ali Al-Hadfa, GCEO/ of QATARI DIAR, said: “QATARI DIAR’s sponsorship of this event stems from our belief to support local and regional Islamic business sector. This conference is considered a leading powerhouse for investment and cross-country trade among the countries of the Muslim world.”

“QATARI DIAR has always backed events that contribute to enhancing commerce and economy among business owners in Qatar and their counterparts in the Muslim world,” added Al-Hadfa.

The second edition of the annual conference - organized by Business Owners Union of the OIC in collaboration with Qatar Chamber of Commerce and Industry (QCCI) - was geared at increasing investment and trade between business owners in the private sectors of the OIC, as well as serving as a networking opportunity.

During the conference, a series of presentations were made on some of the most prominent projects that stand economically feasible, and which offer investors and financial authorities the opportunity to engage in.

More than 1,500 businessmen and businesswomen from 40 Muslim countries participated in the conference, which was also attended by representatives of the Islamic Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Islamic Development Bank Group and the Commercial and Industrial Chambers Federations of OIC.
